Registration Q & A

Questions Asked by Attendee

- Q: 6.2.a. Pump Stations be of durable with outward-opening doors. To change the way the doors open would be costly to retrofit.
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.2.5 Ventilation shall conform to Forced ventilation of at least 6 changes of air per hour shall be provided for We have ventilation fans at all site, however, they have thermostat controls that are set at a certain temperature. They also allow for manual override if needed. This should be sufficient.
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.6.3 Gauges and meters Each pump c. shall have a means for measuring the discharge The station shall have indicating, totalizing, and recording metering of the total water pumped. To have existing stations retrofitted with meters would be very costly and should be something that the engineer and the system decideds to do if they feel it is needed.
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.4 Booster Pump c. automatic shutoff or low pressure controler shall maintain at least 20 psi in the suction line Doesn't this conflict the Sanitary code?
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.3 Pumps At least two pumping units shall..... With any pump out of service, the remaining pump or pumpsshall be capable of providing the maximum pumping demand of the system. This should be left up to the engineer and if the system wants it should be able to have a spare motor and/or pump available.
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.2 .e Pump Stations shall have ... All floors shall slope to a suitable drain. Should be a design criteria.
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: I can hear you.
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.2.2 Pump station shall be provided with c. a convient tool board..... for proper maintenacne of the equipment. To have a tool board at each station is unnecessary and unreasonable. Employees are provided with the necessary tools that are in their vehicle.
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.6.3 Gauges and meters Each pump
- A: --unanswered--
- Q: 6.2.2. Equipment servicing Pump stations shall be provided with a. crane-ways..... or other heavy equipment. Portable equipment should be able to be used. The installation - retrofitting of existing stations would be costly. This should be for new stations.
